FORM OF ADMISSION.

ADDRESS.

Beloved Friends:

You have now presented yourselves before God and his people and the world, to make a solemn profession of your religious faith, and to take upon you the bonds of the everlasting Covenant. We trust that you have sincerely and prayerfully considered the nature of these obligations, and that you are prepared by divine grace to give yourselves away, as "a living sacrifice," holy and acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

You will then attend to the

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

1. You believe in One only living and true God; the Creator, Preserver, and Governor of the universe; a Being of infinite power, knowledge, wisdom, justice, goodness and truth; the self-existent, independent and immutable fountain of good; and that this One God is revealed to us in the Sacred Volume, under the distinction of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, God over all blessed forever.

2. You believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the inspired word of God; and that they are a sufficient and the only perfect rule of faith and practice.

3. You believe that the divine law and the principles and administration of the divine government are perfectly holy, just and good; and that all rational beings are bound to approve of them as such.

4. You believe that in consequence of the apostacy of Adam from his original state of rectitude, the heart of man in his natural state, or previous to regeneration, is destitute of holiness, and in a state of positive disaffection with the law, character and government of God.

5. You believe that Christ, the Son of God, has by his sufferings and death on the cross, made atonement for sin; so that the offer of pardon and salvation is now made to all, on condition that they will break off their sins by repentance, and believe on the Lord Jesus as their only Redeemer.

6. You believe that repentance and faith denote an internal spiritual change, the natural fruit of which is cordial obedience to the law of God; that this change is produced by the Holy Spirit, and that all who are thus born of the Spirit will be indebted for the same to the grace and mercy of God through the Atonement of Christ, and will be kept by his power, through faith, unto salvation.

7. You believe that there will be a general resurrection of the bodies both of the just and of the unjust; that all mankind must one day stand before the judgment seat of Christ, to receive a just and final sentence of retribution, according to the deeds done here in the body; and that the punishment of the wicked, and the happiness of the righteous will be without end.

8. You believe that Christ has a visible Church in the world, into which none, in the sight of God, but real believers, and none, in the sight of men, but visible believers, have right of admission.

9. You believe that the Sacraments of the New Testament are Baptism and the Lord's Supper: that believers in regular church standing only can consistently partake of the Lord's Supper; and that believers and their households only can consistently be admitted to the ordinance of Baptism.

Do you thus believe?

[Baptism is here administered.]

You will now enter into Covenant with God and with this Church.

COVENANT.

You do now, in the presence of God, angels and men, avouch the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son and Holy Ghost to be your God, the supreme object of your affections, and your chosen portion forever.

You cordially acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ, in all his mediatorial offices, Prophet, Priest and King, as your only Saviour and final Judge: and the Holy Spirit as your Sanctifier, Comforter, and Guide. You humbly and cheerfully devote yourselves to God in the everlasting covenant of Grace; you consecrate all your powers and faculties to his service and glory; and you promise that through the assistance of his spirit and grace, you will cleave to him as your chief good; that, denying all ungodliness and every worldly lust, you will live soberly, righteously, and godly: and that you will strive to walk in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

You do now cordially join yourselves to this as a Church of Christ, and agree to submit to its discipline, as prescribed in the divine word. You agree to aid in maintaining the public worship of God. You promise to watch over yourselves and over each member in covenant with you; to give and receive, as occasion may require, warning, reproof and admonition. You do solemnly covenant with this church and with God to search the Scriptures daily, and take them for your guide in faith and practice; to maintain secret prayer, and if at the head of a household, family prayer; to meet with this church for the public and social worship of God; to give your influence, example and prayers to build up the cause of our Divine Lord and Master; and, under the influence of the Holy Spirit, to be followers of God as dear children.

Thus you solemnly covenant and promise?

We, then, the members of this church, [the members of the church here rise] affectionately receive you to our communion and fellowship, and, on our part, promise to watch over your spiritual interests, ever treating you in love as members of the body of Christ who is Head over all things to the Church. This we do, imploring of the Great Shepherd of Israel our Lord and Redeemer, that both we and you may have wisdom and grace to be faithful in his Covenant, and finally be admitted to the everlasting fellowship of saints and angels, in the presence of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.—AMEN.

CHURCH ORDER AND STANDING RULES.

1. A Committee is annually appointed to assist the Pastor in examining those candidates for admission, who prefer this mode to an examination before the Church, at a regular meeting. Those approved by the Committee, or at the Church meeting, are propounded, at least two weeks previous to the Communion; and they are admitted by a vote of the Church, taken on making a public profession of faith, or at the close of the Preparatory Lecture.

2. Those who bring letters of dismission and recommendation from other Churches, submit their letters to the Examining Committee. If approved, they are publicly propounded and admitted by a vote of the Church.

3. Members of this Church, who remove out of the Parish, are expected to take up their connection with us, and unite with some other Church, in or near the place where they reside, within one year after their removal, unless there be special reasons for delay.

4. Members of other Churches residing within our limits, and wishing to commune with us for more than a year, are desired to request a removal of their church relation to us as soon as may be convenient.

5. The ordinance of the Lord's Supper is administered, on the first Sabbath in January, March, May, July, September and November; when all members of other Evangelical Churches, in regular standing, are invited to unite with us in celebrating the dying love of our common Lord and Saviour.

6. It is intended that no person shall be admitted as a member of this Church, either by letter or profession, unless he refrain entirely from the use, manufacture, or sale of ardent spirits except as a medicine. Special votes have also been passed unanimously by this Church, declaring their conviction that Slavery is wholly inconsistent with the spirit of the Gospel, and that, as a Church of Christ, they will have no fellowship with those who uphold the system.

QUESTIONS FOR SELF-EXAMINATION.

1. Do I habitually keep in mind my Covenant obligations; and do I constantly endeavor to discharge the duties arising out of them, as I promised to do when they were first assumed?

2. Are the opinions which I adopt, and endeavor to impress on the minds of others, in accordance with the Scriptures and my profession of faith?

3. What is the prevailing tenor of my life? Is it spiritual or worldly—serious or trifling? How far am I governed by a regard to the opinions, customs, maxims and the fashions of the world? Would I rather be deemed polite and fashionable, or meek and holy?

4. What influence has my example upon those with whom I associate? Will it save or destroy?

5. With whom do I love to associate, as my intimate friends? What are the prospects for another world, of those in whose company I most delight?

6. Is my life in accordance with a firm belief in the Bible? Do I daily read that Holy Book with a prayerful desire to understand it? Do I esteem its sacred truths above all price? And do its precepts regulate my intercourse with men, and my communion with God?

7. Do I perform the duty of secret prayer?—How often and with what spirit? Is my enjoyment in these seasons so great that I can truly say with the Psalmist, "My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God; when shall I come and appear before God?"

8. How do I spend the Sabbath? Is it to me a day "holy to the Lord, and honorable?" Do I employ any of its hours in needless cares?—Or, in indolence?—In vain thoughts?—Or, in profit-less or worldly conversation? Is it truly made by me a day of rest to the soul, from the cares of earth?

9. If a parent, am I in the practice of daily family prayer? Are my children given to God in Baptism? Are they instructed in the truth, and are they educated for eternity?

10. Do I, in dependence on divine aid, habitually govern my passions? Do I refrain from complaining of those around me, and from fault-finding towards my brethren? Am I meek, forbearing and forgiving? Is the law of Kindness on my tongue, and the law of Love in my heart?

11. Do I remember that my time, talents and property all belong to God, and that, if I am a Christian indeed, they are unreservedly devoted to him? Do I then honor the Lord with my substance? Do I love to deny myself for the purpose of doing good to others?

12. Do I love the souls of men? Do I feel for them as did "the Man of Sorrows," when he looked upon the city forsaken of God? Are there those toward whom I strive to be faithful, and for whose salvation I feel continued anxiety?

13. Do I have an abiding interest in the meetings of Christians for prayer and conference—in the Monthly Concert—in the Sabbath School? And do I sustain them by my presence, influence and hearty co-operation?

14. Is my zeal for the cause of God and the salvation of men constant, or is it only periodical? And am I, on the whole, living so that I may reasonably hope to be a blessing in the world?

15. Do I strive to bear in mind that I have but one life to live? That the character I form here will be mine in another world? That the good or ill I do here, will follow me into the unseen world, and continue, in its effects, forever?

16. Do I live as though I was "bought with a price," and had given myself wholly to Christ? Is my prayer, in sickness and in health, in joy and in sorrow, in life or in prospect of death "Thy will, O God, be done"?

EXPLANATIONS, &c.—*Signifies deceased; L, received by letter; D, dismissed regularly to another church; E. W., fellowship withdrawn, meaning entire exclusion from communion with this church. In some instances individuals have left and joined other churches without letters of dismission and recommendation, and such are designated by W.—Withdrawn. As the early records frequently gave only the name of the husband, when he and his wife united with the church at the same time, her name is indicated by Mrs. immediately following in most cases that of her husband. Blank leaves are appended to this catalogue, and it is exceedingly desirable that each member should make record of all future admissions and changes, as they occur; also furnish information, as far as possible, by which to complete the record of early members.
